ABILITIES

STARTING ABILITY

Lay on hands: You have sworn allegiance to a god and learned to channel divine power through your mana. When you place your hands upon a target, you may spend 1 mana to channel divine power and reduce physical harm by 1 level, or manifest a minor miracle within your god's domain.
Your god: _____
Their domain: _____

EXPERTISE

- Expertise: Choose a special ability from another source. How did you learn it? _____

SPECIAL ABILITIES

- Devout prayer: You may enter a state of prayer. While you remain in prayer, miracles within your god's domain manifest around you. Each miracle costs 1 mana. [NE]
- Strong mind: When you try to RESIST using INSIGHT, take +1d.
- Adept hermeneutist: When you try to understand a text, inscription, or symbol, take +1d.
- A miracle!: As a result of your training and affinity to your god, you can channel more divine power through your body. When you LAY ON HANDS, you may spend 3 mana instead of 1 to manifest a major miracle. [NE]
- Major Healer: You know how diseases work and how to cure them. When healing an ally (either during downtime or with LAY ON HANDS), reduce harm by 2 levels instead of 1. Lv 4 harm still cannot be reduced. [NE]
- Cult's agent: You are part of a cult. When you make a SOCIAL ACTION ROLL against a member of your cult or someone from a friendly cult, take +1d. When you make a SOCIAL ACTION ROLL against a member of a rival cult, take -1d instead.
- Man of peace: When you act sincerely and don't mask your intentions, people tend to act toward you in the same way.
- Attuned: You may expend your special armor to resist a consequence of an ATTUNE roll.
- Sacred knowledge: You know about gods and their will. When making a SOCIAL ACTION ROLL using your knowledge of the deities, take +1d.
- Blessing: You may spend 1 mana to bless an ally. The next time they would roll a failure, something from your god's domain intervenes, and they may treat the result as a partial success. [NE]
