ABILITIES

STARTING ABILITY

ANIMAL PARTNER: You share a deep bond with nature. During one of your hunts, you encountered the creature that became your lifelong companion. It can act on its own or assist you in your actions. When it helps you, take +1 to the roll result.
Your animal partner: _____

EXPERTISE

- EXPERTISE: Choose a special ability from another source. How did you learn it? _____
- EXPERTISE: Choose a special ability from another source. How did you learn it? _____
- EXPERTISE: Choose a special ability from another source. How did you learn it? _____

SPECIAL ABILITIES

- TRAP EXPERT: You have extensive experience dealing with traps. When you set up or deal with a trap, take +1d.
- PRIMAL HUNTER: Hunting prey is your specialty. Like a force of nature, you never let your target escape unless you choose to. When you gather information on a target or chase them, take +1d.
- MY FRIEND, MY BEAST: You have trained your animal partner so well that it has developed a quality far beyond the ordinary. Its appearance has changed accordingly, making it more frightening or intimidating. [NE]
- NEVER ALONE: When you fail a NON-SOCIAL ACTION ROLL and your animal partner is not helping you, you may expend your special armor to call it to your aid and treat the result as a partial success. [NE]
- CAMUFALGE: When you try to hide or disguise yourself in a natural environment, take +1d.
- SOUND SIGNAL: You have developed a subtle sound signal with your animal partner. To others, it sounds like an ordinary noise. [NE]
- TALENTED ACROBAT: When you try to perform a series of acrobatic movements, take +1d.
- PRIMAL MOVEMENTS: Your body moves with the instinct and the agility of a wild animal. You can PUSH YOURSELF to perform a feat of actobatics beyond the normal limit.
- PREDATOR'S EYE: Your instincts as a hunter allow you to read the movements of beasts. When you look for a creature's weak points, take +1d.
- INSTINCT: Your senses and your instinct are twice as sharp as normal.
